NEGEV HONOUREE

DR. DAN DECKELBAUM

Dr. Dan Deckelbaum is a Professor of Surgery and Critical Care Medicine at McGill University and a leading figure in global surgery and trauma systems strengthening. Trained in general surgery, trauma surgery, and critical care with a Master of Public Health, he has built an internationally recognized career dedicated to improving access to safe surgical and trauma care in low- and middle-income countries. As the founder and Co-Director of the Centre for Global Surgery at the McGill University Health Centre, he has led capacity-building initiatives across Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and Latin America, focusing on sustainable training and disaster preparedness. His work bridges clinical care, academic research, humanitarian response, and health systems development to address injury and surgical disease as major global health priorities, while remaining grounded in the lived experiences of patients and communities affected by trauma and crisis.

Dan's global health contributions span frontline disaster response, education, and policy-relevant work. He has deployed clinically in major humanitarian crises, including the Haiti and Nepal earthquakes and mass casualty events in East Africa, and has led the development and international implementation of the Trauma and Disaster Team Response Course to train local providers in scalable, context-appropriate care. Raised in Israel, he has also demonstrated a longstanding dedication to Israel and the region through academic collaborations, invited lectures, and engagement with global surgery and disaster preparedness initiatives. Throughout this work, he has maintained a steadfast focus on the human impact of trauma and disaster—ensuring that system-level solutions never lose sight of the individual patient, family, and provider. He has served as head team physician for the Montreal Canadiens, bringing expertise in trauma and critical care to elite sport. Through all this work, Dan advocates for access to quality healthcare regardless of background.

GUEST SPEAKER JONATHAN CONRICUS

Defense and Communications Expert

Jonathan Conricus is a senior fellow at the “Foundation for Defense of Democracies” and the owner of “Conricus Communications”. He was the first IDF officer to be seconded to the UN HQ in New York where he provided strategic analysis for UN peacekeeping.

During the first three months of the war against Hamas, he represented the IDF in international media in hundreds of interviews across top-tier networks, often explaining complex situations on the ground, in addition to delivering dozens of updates on IDF social media accounts for millions of interested viewers around the world. Between 2017-2021, Jonathan served as the IDF’s International Spokesperson, responsible for the global public affairs, social media and public diplomacy of the IDF.

2026 NEGEV GALA PROJECT

TRAUMA UNIT EXPANSION AT TZAFON MEDICAL CENTRE

Saving lives on Israel's northern front

Tzafon Medical Center, a critical lifeline near the Sea of Galilee. With 450 beds, it serves as a beacon of excellence and coexistence in Northern Israel. Since October 2023, sustained missile attacks from Lebanon and Iran have placed immense pressure on its infrastructure, including the trauma team that provided life-saving care following the devastating Majdal Shams strike. Over the past four years, critical trauma admissions have increased fivefold. However, the Trauma Unit currently operates in a tiny 84-square-meter space with only three beds—dangerously insufficient for mass casualty events.

TMC is launching an essential project to expand and renovate the Trauma Unit. Your support will help:

- Increase capacity: Expanding the trauma bay from 84 to 119 sq m.
- Double resources: Growing from 3 to 7 fully-equipped trauma beds.
- Modernize care: Adding advanced equipment and critical care infrastructure.

This expansion ensures that no life is lost due to a lack of space. Strengthening TMC's Trauma Unit bolsters the resilience of Northern Israel when every second counts.
